ARTICLES OF THE SOCIETY OF ST PAUL DIRECTORY CHANGED BY THE 5th GENERAL CHAPTER

195.3 In the election of delegates to the provincial chapter, all professed members enjoy active voice, and all perpetually professed members enjoy both active and passive voice. The houses that number from five to eleven members are to send one delegate; those with at least twelve members, two delegates; those with more than fifty members, four delegates. The houses with less than five members are to be grouped together, as outlined by the provincial superior, in such a way that the groupings do not exceed twenty professed members. They will elect two delegates.

When the election of the delegates is concluded, the election of their substitutes takes place. Each substitute is elected with a relative majority. This norm is to be applied each and every time that it is a question of electing delegates.

196.5 In order to send the delegates of the province to the general chapter, the provincial chapter will elect, by an absolute majority of votes, two perpetually professed members. When there are at least one hundred professed members the province is to elect four delegates. Over and above two hundred members one extra delegate is to be elected for every hundred members or fraction of a hundred above fifty.

In any case, in accordance with the norm of article 195.3 (last paragraph) the notification of substitute delegates is not to be overlooked.

In the election of the abovenamed delegates, all the members of the provincial chapter enjoy active and passive voice, while all the perpetually professed members of the province enjoy passive voice.

Should members not present at the chapter be elected, they are to be summoned without delay. They enjoy the same rights as the other chapter members; but, in the meanwhile, the provincial chapter continues its sittings.

When the election is over and the result promulgated by the provincial superior, original documents are to be drawn up which, signed by the provincial himself and by the secretary of the chapter, are to be handed over to the elected members as proof of their legitimate delegation to the general chapter.

Prayer for the General Chapter

Holy Spirit of God,
sent by the Father in the name of Jesus,
to assist and infallibly guide the Church,
pour out the fullness of your gifts on our Chapter.

Teacher and Consoler, illumine our minds so that this Chapter will have an effective outcome;
our commitment to holiness and the apostolate
will acquire new vigour;
the light and the power of the Gospel
will be better made known throughout the world.

Welcome Guest of our souls, strengthen our minds in truth,
motivate our hearts to obedience so that the deliberations of the Chapter will find generous assent and full application.

Renew the wonders of a new Pentecost in our Family.
Grant that, gathered round Mary, the Mother of Jesus,
in unanimous and ardent prayer,
and guided by Peter,
we may spread the Kingdom of the Divine Master,
in the spirit of the Apostle Paul. Amen.
